BOOTLEGGER TAKES ORDERS AT CAPITOL

Product Reported for Sale Here at $6 a Case.
Release of Youths at Marietta Sought.

Two more cities Wednesday joined the swelling list of Georgia municipalities approving the legalization of sale of 3.2 per cent beer as the beverage was sold openly in violation of the law in scores of other places and additional cities were preparing to act on ordinances taking the brew.

Also it was reliably reported Thursday that a beer bootlegger was in the rotunda of the state capital taking orders for his product which was to be had for $6 a case. The beer was said to have cost $3.06 in Cincinnati. Just how much was sold could not be learned, but it was said that the purveyor was ready to take orders from all and sundry.

One sale was said to have been made for a case of beer in the capitol.

The two new cities to join Georgia's rapidly growing beer parade were Lincolnton and Eatonton, the city councils of these places passing ordinances to tax the beverage. Other cities in which beer has been legalized are Savannah, Savannah Beach, Alma, Thaddeus, Douglas and Vidalia. In Dalton, a petition urging the city council to legalize beer was receiving scores of signatures. In Augusta and Valdosta and other cities on or near borders of beer states the brewers are being dispensed freely at soda fountains and restaurants. Atlanta and East Point councils were among those preparing to take up legislation measures at their next session.

Another Georgia city, Avondale Estates, is already clothed with power to license and tax beer, wine, beer, gardens, wine gardens, brewers, dram shops and distillers. The 1926 charter contained a clause providing for taxing such beverages and enterprises but no local legislative act can repeal uniform statewide legislation.

Meanwhile, the first legal battle growing out of the beer situation continued to attract attention. Attorney for two youths jailed Wednesday at Marietta when they were caught with a truckload of beer petitioning for their release on a habeas corpus writ.

The attorney, L. M. Blair, appeared before Judge L. H. Hawkins in Cobb superior court and asked freedom for the two men, Glenn Marler and Harry Gordon. Judge Hawkins set the petition for hearing at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The two youths are being held on $100 bail. Sheriff E. M. Lees said that if the case was not disposed of before that time it would be taken up by the county grand jury next month.

In jail in default of the bond, Mar-

Session; Atlanta To Head Law School.

Reorganization of the state university system in process almost a year, is to be completed today and Saturday at a two-day session of the board of regents, during which heads for all units not yet chosen are to be selected and a list of the instructors and other employees to be employed approved.

One of the most important parts of the system was filled Thursday by a special committee from the board announced the selection of Harmond W. Caldwell, 34-year-old Atlanta lawyer, to be dean of the Lumpkin School of Law, of the University of Georgia. Dean Caldwell will succeed Dean H. N. Edmonds, who resigned because of ill health, as head of the university temporarily by Judge Thomas H. Greene, of Athens.

Two other important positions were filled Thursday when other committees announced the selection of Dr. J. H. Woodruff, who is to be president of the new terminal agricultural college at Tifton which is to be opened in September.

Dr. Stuckey succeeds Dr. Andrew M. Soule as head of the college of agriculture. It will not be known until the list of approved employees is announced at the conclusion of the two-day session whether or not Dr. Soule will be retained in the system.

22 Iowans Accused In Foreclosure Riot

DENISON, Iowa, May 11.—(AP)—Twenty-two charges of conspiracy to hinder the process of law and contempt of court were filed today against 22 men allegedly involved in a farm foreclosure sale riot two weeks ago.

Lifting of martial law in effect here since April 28, was the signal for the beginning of prosecution against the men arrested by Iowa national guards.

County Attorney Andrew Bell filed the charges before Judge Homer A. Fuller, of Mount Ayr, after an aide to Major General M. A. Tinley had filed the charges of law and contempt of court.

Chief Justice J. W. Kindig, of the Iowa supreme court, to deal with the Crawford county cases, gave the defendants until Monday to plead. He fixed their bonds at $3,000 each on the conspiracy count and $1,000 for contempt of court.

Auto Drivers' Licensing Plan Approved by Police Body

By BEN COOPER.

Spurred to action because of the appalling place Atlanta occupies in the mortality lists of the nation as a result of traffic accidents, the police committee of council Thursday night unanimously approved a "non-ferve" city licensing plan as offered by it by Councilman William G. Hastings, chairman of Mayor James E. Key's traffic commission and chairman of council's traffic committee.

Hastings, a pioneer in the program to force operators of vehicles to obtain certificates of their proficiency, plans to submit the ordinance, which council will be asked to pass Monday, to the commission and the traffic committee today, and later to offer it for the sanction of the ordinance committee.

Action of the police committee came on the heels of a meeting Friday afternoon in Police Chief T. O. Sturdivant's office, during which the chief told the riot act to all policemen, telling them each member of the department must constitute himself a traffic officer to enforce safety provisions of the city code.

Under the ordinance, drivers will be issued certificates for a charge of 50 cents each if they are able to con-

WALLACE TO STAY ALLOTMENT MOVE TO ALLOW BUYING

Secretary Says New Farm Relief Measure
Will Not Be Put Into Operation at Once.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(AP)—Secretary Wallace will give consumers "full opportunity" to buy a head before policies aiming to boost farm prices back to pre-war levels are put into effect.

This assurance came today from the Iowa as he decided to issue the first calls for commodity conferences tomorrow afternoon within a few hours after President Roosevelt approves the farm emergency act.

Weather—the nemesis of many an agricultural operation—today stayed off the execution of the bill. Speaker Rainey, who must sign the measure before it goes to the White House, was unable to return to Washington from Columbus, Ohio, because of weather which grounded airplanes there.

To Be Signed Today.

The house will meet briefly tomorrow for him to sign the measure. It will be signed to the White House where Wallace, Henry Morgenthau Jr., governor-designate of the farm credit administration, and other key men in the administration agricultural program will be present for the signing ceremony.

Included in the bill are provisions for the refinancing of farm mortgages. It will take some time to set up the mechanism to handle this, and the president intends to issue a statement at the time he affixes his signature urging mortgage holders and debtors to be patient while the preliminary work is being done.

The first commodity conferences will be of an exploratory nature. Producers, processors, handlers and farm experts will discuss relief programs in turn for each of the basic commodities—wheat, cotton, corn, hogs, tobacco, rice and dairy products.

Conferences Next Week.

The first of these conferences will be held next week with plans to space them at two to three-day intervals. Wheat, cotton, corn, hogs and dairy products are scheduled for first attention, probably in the order named, for consideration of dairy products have been pushed ahead because of the serious problems of the industry in New York, Wisconsin and other states.

From these conferences, Wallace hopes to obtain informal agreements on the method of procedure for attacking the problems of each. Plans for each of the basic commodities will be called at which representatives of processors, producers, handlers and consumers will be formed into commodity councils.

Each group entitled to representation is to have one spokesman who is to be armed with full authority to enter into trade agreements and to agree upon the use of processing taxes if the use of such a tax is believed essential.

Consumers will have the opportunity protesting any program which might be regarded as opposed to their interest. Wallace believes that application of the program should come "gradually" in order to prevent any sudden and upward sweep in the cost of living.

Lindbergh Kidnapers 'Identified' by Means

Defendant in Hoax Plot Tells Amazing Story Involving Great and Near-Great of Nation.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(UP)—Gaston B. Means, enjoying a brief vacation from Atlanta penitentiary, told in the witness chair in district supreme court today and told a tale of the Lindbergh kidnaping that was as astounding as his own story-book career.

From the fast-flowing narrative that fascinated the courtroom with spectators, two statements of Means glared out. They were:

That he knew the two men who kidnaped the Lindbergh baby and left it dead on the wooded slopes of New Jersey's Sourland mountain.

That the men had intended to kidnap Lindbergh and hold him for $500,000 ransom.

Means went to the stand in his own defense, seeking to disprove the charge that he had conspired with Norman Whitaker to kidnap Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean of $35,000 on the promise that they would recover the Lindbergh baby. Means now is serving a 15-year term in Atlanta penitentiary in 1925. This is Means' second term in Atlanta.

Then, wrinkling his nose and smiling, the jury, Means named the kidnapers of the Lindbergh baby as "Irving Fenton" and "Wellington Henderson."

At all went back, Means said, to a smoke-filled speakeasy at 277 West Broadway, New York—"Larry Jones' place."

He said he met Fenton there.

"We're going to pull a napping (kidnap) case," Means quoted Fenton.

BLACK TO RECEIVE POMEROY CALLED LEAVE OF ABSENCE BY LEE DEFENSE

Directors Will Act Today on Request of Atlanta Reserve Governor.

Directors of the Sixth Federal Reserve bank will meet in the main office here today to grant to Governor Eugene R. Black a 30-day furlough in order that he may remain in Washington on his new duties as governor of the entire federal reserve system, a post to which President Roosevelt this week drafted him.

The furlough means that Governor Black will not enter his new post here and it is understood that his duties as sixth district governor will be administered in his absence, by Deputy Governor W. S. Johns.

Under the request of the president and the secretary of the treasury, the acceptance is for only a temporary period, at least until vital currency measures proposed in the farm bill have been put into effect.

Because the Washington post is only of a temporary nature, the board today will officially grant the first 30-day leave of absence to Governor Black, as long as the administration desires.

The selection of Governor Black for the high place in the financial affairs of the new government is believed here to have been the result of.

Flood of Jinkys Gives Judges Hard Task To Pick Winners

By THE JINKY EDITOR.

You will pardon my seeming lack of co-ordination today, because together with other judges, among them D. T. Hails, the originator of the Jinky, I have been selecting the winners of last week's Jinky contest. And if you don't think we have had the hardest job of our lives, you try going through thousands and thousands of Jinkys of hundreds of differing patterns.

(Never did I expect such a response.) You who entered the first week have sent this week to fold your Jinkys in this writing as if we will have an all-night job of judging. Your Jinky editor has taken time out to give you a few notes which he hopes will be of value to you in competing for the 168 prizes for this week.

First, I want to tell you to be sure this week to fold your Jinkys. Some contestants thought that the judges would overlook this important fact. But we did not. Jinkys must be folded at least once. Also you cannot trace any design and then cut it out. Jinkys must be cut free-hand with a razor blade or scissors.

Three persons entered Jinkys mounted on tin foil and other backgrounds. Jinkys must not be mounted. Jinky news is spreading. During Thursday people phoned asking questions, so rain today is going to give you the simple rules which, if followed, will aid you in winning some of the 3,000 prizes.

All you have to do is go into any of the co-operating stores, and ask for some Jinkys. Get them and take them home. Cut them in any kind of design you wish. Then get 10 Jinky receipts. These receipts are given by stores with each 25 cent purchase or payment on account. Then next Wednesday bring as many Jinkys as you have receipts for (10 receipts for each Jinky) to 157 Peachtree Arcade.

Don't forget that you can get Jinkys and Jinky receipts at the stores every day in the week, but they may be entered in the contest only on Wednesday.

And be sure to look in the big Sunday Constitution for the names of winners for the first week.

JAPANESE PLANES THREATEN PEIPING WITH DESTRUCTION

Bombers Fly Over Chinese Cities Dropping Pamphlets Urging Ous-ter of General Chiang.

PEIPING, China, May 12.—(Friday)—(AP)—Another unidentified plane flew over Peiping today scattering handbills similar to those dropped by a bombing plane, supposedly Japanese, yesterday.

The aviator dropped leaflets addressed to "fellow Asiatics" and warning that Peiping and its sister city of Tientsin, where about 2,500 Americans live, would be besieged if the Chinese continued their defense of north China.

Foreign communities in the two international treaty areas were not alarmed by the episode and were pursuing their usual activities tonight, but this was the first real scare to the cities and emphasized to the native population that the Japanese offensive was pushing closer after getting control of several Lwan river cities.

Diplomats stationed here said no protest against today's flight were contemplated since the identity of the plane must first be proved.

The leaflets warned Chinese "to cease opposing the Japanese and Manchukuo, to break away from Marshal Chiang (the virtual dictator of the Chinese nationalist government at Nanking), or otherwise the tragedy of Kuperkoff (a great wall pass that was seized several weeks ago by the Japanese with a great loss of life to both sides) will occur in Peiping and Tientsin."

Chinese anti-aircraft guns on the city walls and machine gunners at police headquarters went into action but ineffectively.

The plane, which was estimated to have maintained an altitude of 2,000 feet, was clearly visible to thousands who watched from the streets, although the insignia on his plane could not be distinguished.

The plane continued reconnaissance for a half hour, dropped pamphlets, and then disappeared northward toward the Japanese lines at the Great Wall.

A Chinese official statement today said Japanese flyers had bombed a Chinese base hospital at Chienan, near Kuperkoff Pass, yesterday and again today.

The communiqué declared that a foreign newspaper saw the Japanese bombers "killing death and destruction on the helpless victims, of whom four were killed and seven wounded inside the hospital and six killed and 13 wounded outside."

"The killed," the communiqué continued, "included one Red Cross secretary, one hospital attendant, and two soldier patients. The seven

Sales Levy Is Voted For North Carolina

RALEIGH, N. C., May 11.—(AP)—North Carolina today joined the ranks of states that will rely upon a general sales tax for needed revenue.

The state legislature's free conference report, final legislative approval was given the biennial revenue bill, the main feature of which is a three per cent tax on all retail sales of goods and services, except for a few specified articles of food. The exemptions are meat, flour, milk, meal, lard, molasses, sugar and coffee.

While not stipulated in the act, legislators said it was the general assembly's intention that the tax should be paid by consumers and not be absorbed by dealers.

Textile Markets Humming As Sales Record Increase

By BERNARD S. O'HARA.

(Copyright, 1933, by the Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, May 11.—(AP)—A rush of buying in the cotton goods and other textile markets has brought the industry the greatest volume of business in recent years, textile interests reported today.

Despite the suddenness of the revival and the unusual circumstances attending it, many of the mill operators expressed the belief that it signifies the end of the industry's long slump.

The present situation, they point out, is totally different from the little flurry of last autumn and the short-lived pickup in 1931 and 1930. In each of these instances, however, the decline in purchasing power presented a formidable barrier to any basic improvement in the industry.

Even now, it is admitted, no one can say when consumers are going to enter the market on a scale comparable with present production, but the fact that jobbers, retailers, chain stores, and mail order houses are clamoring for supplies for their bare shelves, buying on a scale far greater than at any previous time in recent years, has given the mill men confidence that a decided upturn in consumption is near at hand.

Father Kills 2 Girls And Self After 'Dates'

EL RENO, Okla., May 11.—(AP)—A father's anger ended a schoolgirl "joyride" in murder and suicide at a cemetery.

Ed Etheridge, 40-year-old farmer, shot and killed his daughter, Berenice, 12, fatally wounded her sister, Elinor, 18, and then killed himself late yesterday.

"Father shot us because we went out with two boys he didn't want us to," officers quoted Elinor as saying before she died in a hospital last night.

The boys, Woody Renfro, high school baseball star, and Charley Clark, also a high school student, were not harmed.

PRESIDENT OFFERS FOREST CAMP JOBS TO BONUS SEEKERS

Douglas Confers With Committee on Question as House Beats Vet
Fund Hike.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(AP)—President Roosevelt held out tonight an offer of a job to unemployed ex-service men and had one of his chief lieutenants discuss with democratic leaders the possibility of action on the cash bonus issue at the present session of congress.

Permission to enroll 25,000 unemployed veterans in the forest conservation corps was granted by the chief executive in an order which will permit enlistment of the former soldiers "as rapidly as possible."

The president's move came while groups were converging on the city to demand cash payment of the adjusted service certificates. One of the principal arguments of bonus proponents has been that veterans cannot obtain work.

An effort to increase administration figures for 1934 veterans' benefits by $180,000,000 was defeated 119 to 76 today by the house.

Just a few minutes earlier, the house overrode a recommendation of $100,000 from veterans' benefits for the first time this session, voting an additional $8,000,000 into the $555,575,000 independent offices supply bill to maintain regional offices of the veterans' administration.

Just as a right wing group of veterans marched down into the city for a overnight stay on Capitol Hill, Lewis W. Douglas, director of the budget, began a conference with democratic members of the house ways and means committee over the question of bonus payment. The budget chief, who was instrumental in drafting regulations to slash some $400,000 from veterans' benefits in advance of gauging sentiment in the house toward payment of bonus certificates to all veterans and to those who are unemployed.

MORE JOBS SLATED FOR GEORGIA MILL

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 11.—(AP)—Plans for reducing the hours of labor without disturbing the present weekly earnings of their 1,100 employees were being formulated today by the Peerless Woolen mills of Rossville, Ga.

J. L. Hutcheson, president, said the plans had not been completed, but he expected the scheme to be worked out this week. Employees now are working from 60 to 70 hours per week. The new plan would provide employment for several hundred more workers.

By the Associated Press.

Further wage increases, recall of employees, and buoyant stock and commodity markets brightened the American business picture yesterday.

Manufacturers of shirts, steel and other varied industries reported better business.

The United States department of commerce added an optimistic note by raising today's forecast of a sharp rise in wholesale commodity prices for the week ended May 6.

The stock exchange, the New York and London cotton markets and Chicago wheat pit went on a fresh rampage of bullishness Thursday, marking up scores of prices to the highest in a year and a half.

Cotton futures in New York and New Orleans continued their spectacular advance to close with gains ranging from $1.50 to $1.70 a bale and putting four of the six contract-month quotations well above the 9-cent-a-pound level. Middling spot cotton closed at 8.95 cents in New York and 8.91 in the southern market.

Stocks Boom.

The stock market surged up $1 to $5 a share for many leading issues, looking forward coming close to the swift pace of the past three years.

With the government crop report pointing to the smallest wheat harvest since 1904, that staple surged up about 3 cents a bushel in Chicago, reaching the best levels since 1931, and closing with net gains of 2 5-8 to 2 7-8.

The bond market, and other staple markets, also joined the upward procession. Trading in bonds was the largest since September, 1931, with $10 to $40 per bond of $1,000 face value.

Wool futures advanced 2 to 3 1-2 cents a pound, raw silk 6 to 8 cents, crude rubber 24 to 32 of a cent a

ASSOCIATION URGES RAIL 'SQUARE DEAL'

Carrier Body Asks Tax Be Placed on Motor Vehicles, Barges.

RICHMOND, Va., May 11.—(AP)—Congress and state legislatures were asked to discontinue "subsidies now enjoyed by other forms of transportation" and give a "square deal" to railroads in a resolution adopted today at the closing business session of the Railroad Tie Association.

The resolution urged that commercial motor vehicles and barge lines be subjected to "regulations, taxes and labor requirements comparable to those of the railroads, and also that action be taken which will place these other forms of transportation under the control of the interstate commerce commission."

The two-day convention was brought to a close with the election of R. N. Johnson, of Richmond, Ind., as president, and the following other officers: S. D. Hicks, Pittsburgh, vice president; E. J. Stocking, St. Louis, vice president; Roy Edmonds, St. Louis, secretary-treasurer, and D. F. Frampton, Pittsburgh, R. B. Condon, Philadelphia, and R. Van Metre, Chicago, as members of the executive committee. The 1934 convention site will be selected by the executive committee.

LOOK OUT FOR THESE SYMPTOMS OF CONSTIPATION

Get Relief With Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

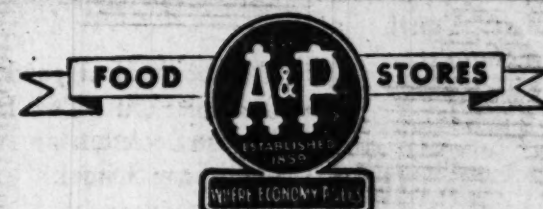

Headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sallow complexion, and sleeplessness are often warning signs of common constipation. Unless checked, constipation may impair health.

Today, you can get rid of common constipation by simply eating a delicious cereal. Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regularity. ALL-BRAN is also a good source of blood-building iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears the intestines of wastes. How much better than taking patent medicines.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation. Serious cases, with every meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or use in cooking. Appetizing recipes on the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

A MESSAGE FOR MOTHER'S DAY to PIGGY WIGGLY CO-WORKERS

Mother's Day is approaching. On Sunday, May 14, all America will stand with head uncovered and pay its tribute of love and devotion to the Motherhood of our land. While the day is observed generally as a matter of custom it is my earnest hope that every Co-Worker in our organization will enter into its spirit to the fullest.

How appropriate it is that each one of us should set aside the common interests of this work-a-day world to honor Her who gave him life. For some, Mother means a silvery-haired companion along life's way. For others, Mother means a halcyon memory, lingering on to bless through the years. But whether gone or with us still, far away or near, let each dedicate this day as a memorial to his Mother.

And as we send our messages by letter or wire or speak them to grateful ears; as we give gifts to express the feelings too tender for words to convey; as we wear our flowers of red or white—let us not forget that there is only one way to show our appreciation of our Mothers. Let us cherish the ideals they have exemplified before us. Let our lives reflect the high principles they have sought to instill within us. Let us be what they would have us be.

As the spirit of loyalty to high aims and to one another influences our relations, so may we join on this sacred day of the year in a universal tribute to the Mothers of us all.

"A CO-WORKER."

N. Y. JURIST UPHOLDS SURETY ORGANIZATION

NEW YORK, May 11.—(P)—Supreme Court Justice Louis A. Valentine today refused to interfere with the reorganization of the National Surety Company, which, he said, "even today is probably the greatest of its kind and which has become frozen by circumstances beyond its control."

Objection to the reorganization, which is being carried out under a plan formulated by George S. Van Schaick, state superintendent of insurance, was raised by the Kenon Coal Company, a creditor.

The coal company protested against a transfer of the company's liquid assets to a new organization, known as the National Surety Corporation.

"The frozen assets of the National Surety Company, according to the plan," said Justice Valentine, "are held for the benefit of all creditors without discrimination, who besides are protected by the assets represented by the stock of the National Surety Corporation and the potentiality of profits that stock will realize."

Furthermore, Justice Valentine said, the stock of the new corporation, while pledged with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in return for $5,000,000 of collateral, "nevertheless is ultimately for the benefit of all of the creditors of the old company without discrimination."

A second objection raised by the coal company, that the board of directors of the new National Surety Corporation is substantially the same board that ruled over the old company and that creditors were deprived of representation on it, was termed by the court "not only unjustified but ungenerous."

The court added that "no charge of any misfeasance or malfeasance is even breathed by any of the objectors."

Mercury Rises to 87; Showers Seen Today

Thundershowers are expected today as compared with a high of 87 registered Thursday, the forecast is for a maximum of 88 today.

The showers will fall intermittently, Director George W. Mindling said, and the low reading will be the same as Thursday—88.

JAM MAKERS CHEER AS CHEAP STRAWBERRIES COME

LOOK AT THESE WONDERFUL RIPE STRAWBERRIES... WHAT JAM THEY WILL MAKE WITH CERTO!

YES! AND CERTO WILL SAVE YOU TIME AND MONEY—AND GIVE YOU EVEN BETTER FLAVOR, TOO.

Hundreds of women rush to local stores to get their Certo and berries... many planning to put up extra batches this year

If you and your family like Strawberry Jam (and what sensible family doesn't?), your DAY has come at last! For the markets are filled with luscious ripe strawberries.

With Certo and the Certo recipes you can put up double the amount of jam* in the usual time, too. Certo, you see, cuts your boiling time for Strawberry Jam to one minute. Hence you can make a complete batch in 12 minutes or less from the time the fruit is prepared.

And Certo will give you better tasting jam or jelly. All the fresh fruit flavor will be kept intact. And because no fruit juice has time to boil away, you'll get as much as one-half again more glasses from the same amount of fruit.

So get your strawberries. And get two bottles of Certo, too. That's enough to make up 40 glasses of the finest tasting Strawberry Jam you can put on your table. Certo is a product of General Foods. Get it at your grocer's.

*NOTE: With Certo you can also make jelly from strawberries. Certo, you see, provides the jellifying power which strawberries themselves lack.

4 Reasons FOR ALWAYS USING CERTO

- 1 Reduces boiling to one minute.
- 2 Saves the fresh fruit flavor.
- 3 Gives half again more glasses.
- 4 89 Fail-proof recipes with every bottle.

MARATHON RANKS FURTHER REDUCED

The marathon dance at the Palais Peachtree, which is now close to the 1,000-hour mark, has reduced the ranks of the contestants again with the advent of a series of new grinds. The first one was an event that kept the spectators on the edge of their seats for the entire evening and as the three dancers were forced to drop out, the crowd rose and yelled in an effort to keep the dancers in the contest. The third of the grinds will be held tonight at the marathon and from all indications the Palais will be jammed to the roof with rooters for their favorite couples. The management has also announced that the kiddie's amateur contest will be held again on Saturday afternoon. Any child in Atlanta that is talented in any way will be eligible for one of the cash prizes.

President Cox also announced at the same time the retirement of Dr. W. J. Young as professor of missions. R.O.T.C. School Units
Defended by Brittain

Asserting that R. O. T. C. training in schools and colleges is not only beneficial physically and mentally to the student, but also is the "cheapest manner of maintaining national defense," Dr. M. L. Brittain, president of Georgia Tech, Thursday joined the movement to retain the military units in schools of the fourth corps area. He mailed letters asking for co-operation in his plan to college presidents in the area.

Previously, two schools of Atlanta, Boys' High and Tech High, had circulated petitions asking representatives in congress to fight the move to abolish R. O. T. C. units as an economy measure.

Tip

Don't take chances when you bake, don't use a flour
you can't depend on. Use

Ballard's Obelisk—for 50 years the basic ingredient in the South's fine baking. It's made from a superior grade of selected soft wheat. It will give your cakes a more delicate texture. Your biscuits and breads will be whiter when you use Obelisk. For this flour means easier work and real economy.
It requires less kneading... less shortening!
Keeps bakings fresh longer. Ask for it by name at your grocer's. Look for the

SPRINGTIME CAKES

Plan Your Cakes as You Do Other Dishes—for Their Good Value—and Vary Them With the Season of the Year.

Sponge Cakes and Angel Foods Are Especially Appropriate for the Warmer Months.

In the spring a young woman's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of sponge and angel cakes and other cakes that require many eggs. Then eggs are inexpensive and plentiful, and the diet calls for less fattening desserts.

Sponge, or other similar cakes, and angel cake, while rich in many eggs, are not so fattening as butter-cakes. The eggs provide protein which is a body builder and not an energy or fat maker. The combination of sugar, eggs and flour is much easier to digest than the heavier one of sugar and fat, milk, flour and eggs.

Let's make a few cakes of this variety and see wherein the differences lie. Some are called sponge, some sunshine, some silver-and-gold, some angel cakes, etc.

First of all, the angel cake. This is the queen of all cakes, fluffy, tasty, light, easily digested and really easy to make if directions are followed. Of course, it does require a lot of beating, and if a person owns a mechanical mixer, the job is simpler and done in less time.

Angel Food Cake. One and one-fourth cups egg whites (about 12 whites), 1 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 cups fine granulated sugar, 1 teaspoon flavoring extract, 1 cup cake flour.

Beat the egg whites with a flat wire whisk, or in a mechanical mixer until they are frothy but not dry. Then add cream of tartar and continue beating them until they will stand up in peaks or points and will not slip when the bowl is turned. This means that the point has been reached when the moisture of the egg whites is combined properly with air.

Gradually fold in the sugar, previously sifted twice, with the flouring. A combination of vanilla and almond is the usual flavor, but orange or lemon may be used, or rose extract.

Last of all, fold in the flour which has been sifted three times with the salt. At this point, avoid any stirring motions, but continue with the cutting and folding ones. Pour the batter into a dry ungreased cake pan, preferably with a cone center.

Bake in a slow oven, starting with 250 degrees and gradually increasing it to 350 degrees, so that the cake is done in just an hour. The easiest way to regulate the heat of the oven, if you have no automatic control, is to place the cake in a cold oven, then light the burners and gradually heat oven to a moderate one.

When cake is done, invert the pan over a cake rack until cooled. Then remove from pan.

It is incorrect to cut angel food cake. The pieces must be either broken or pried apart with two forks, working with the times back to back. It is unnecessary and inadvisable to frost an angel food cake, although some people seem to like it.

Variations of the Angel Food Cake. A variation in flavor may be secured by adding one teaspoon cinnamon and one-half teaspoon nutmeg, and one-fourth teaspoon each cloves and allspice to the flour before it is combined with the egg whites.

This cake is served, topped with whipped cream, individual portions. Some people like a chocolate angel food cake. To make it, without increasing the fat content, fold cocoa. When measuring out the flour, use only one-fourth cup of it, and fill the cup with sifted cocoa, one-fourth cup. Proceed as usual.

Maraschino cherry angel food is also liked. The batter is tinted slightly pink with cake coloring, and finely cut Maraschino cherries are added to it. Use no more than a half cup cherries for the whole cake. This particular cake is frosted with a cherry frosting, made with the juice from the fruit, warmed a little and mixed with some ground or minced cherries and enough 4X confectioners' sugar to thicken it.

Properly made and baked angel food cakes will drop out of the pans by themselves when sufficiently cooled, upside down.

Sponge Cake. Sponge cake is made with equal number of egg yolks and whites. There is one true sponge cake and two other varieties—a hot water sponge and a meringue or syrup sponge. Some people make the hot water sponge cake with hot milk instead, and occasionally a recipe for a golden sponge cake is found—calling for all yolks. Here is recipe for true sponge cake.

Five or 6 eggs, whites and yolks separated, 1 cup fine granulated sugar, 1 cup cake flour, 1-4 teaspoon salt, grated rind and juice 1 lemon. Add the sugar slowly to the beaten yolks and continue beating till thick and lemon-colored, then add the lemon juice and rind, and the whites beaten very stiff. Finally fold in the flour and salt sifted three times. Bake in a deep pan about 50 minutes. Invert over cake rack until it drops out of pan.

Sunshine Cake. Sunshine cake is made practically the same as a sponge cake, but most recipes call for the addition of two extra egg whites. This makes the cake lighter and fluffier.

Seven egg whites (about 3-4 cup), 5 egg yolks (about 1-2 cup), 1 cup fine granulated sugar, 1 cup cake flour, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 3-4 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1 teaspoon orange extract.

The method is exactly the same as for the true sponge cake.

Palm Beach Sponge Cake. This cake is made like the meringue type of sponge cakes, where sugar syrup is poured over stiffly beaten egg whites and beaten just like boiled frosting. It is a delicate cake, and directions must be followed carefully.

Boil 3-4 cup granulated sugar and 1-4 cup water to 238 degrees or to a short thread stage. Pour slowly, beating constantly, over 4 stiffly beaten egg whites. Add grated rind and 1 orange, continue beating with egg beater or mechanical mixer until well combined.

Beat yolks 4 eggs till thick and lemon-colored, add gradually, beating constantly, 1-4 cup orange juice. When mixture is very thick, fold in the egg white mix, then very carefully 2-3 cup cake flour sifted with 1-2 teaspoon cream of tartar.

Bake the cake in moderate oven, as for sponge cake. It may be frosted if desired, with a plain orange frosting.

And now, my readers, after you file these recipes get your Jinkys and scissors and start cutting. You'll be surprised how easy it is to win a prize. Start cutting Jinkys today—it's lots of fun and be sure and ask for your Jinky receipts every time you spend a quarter.

Strawberry Jelly. Seven and one-half cups (3 1-4 lbs.) sugar, 4 cups (2 lbs.) juice, 1 bottle Certo.

Measure sugar and juice, as prepared above, into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire and at once add Certo, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1-2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Make about 11 8-ounce glasses.

Crushed Strawberry Jam. Seven cups (3 lbs.) sugar, 4 cups (2 lbs.) prepared fruit, 1-2 bottle (1-2 cup) Certo.

Measure sugar and fruit, as prepared above, into large kettle, mix well, and bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in Certo. Then stir and skim by turns for just 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once. Makes about 10 8-ounce glasses.

Police Storm Auto 'Fort' And Take Tag Protestor

JACKSON, Mich., May 11.—(AP) Five officers, armed with a warrant, dodged a barrage of broken glass, canned food and auto tools today to smash their way into the firmly anchored and barricaded automobile of Ernest A. Moross, 58-year-old Mosherville, Mich., crusader, and remove Moross and his wife to jail on a charge of driving with improper license plates.

Barricaded in the automobile since last night, supplied with food, extra clothing and a stove, Moross and his wife had declared they would "hold out forever" in a protest, they said, against the cost of license plates in Michigan.

Moross, once manager of the Indianapolis automobile races, a friend of Henry Ford and for many years manager of Barney Oldfield, has been hanged in effigy on his lawn at Mosherville for his crusading in various fields.

Relief Fund for Hospitals Will Be Sought Here Today

Cherry L. Emerson, president of Robert and Company, buying the first tag from Miss Sara Law.

More than 500 prominent Atlanta women today will ask Atlantans to make small contributions for the relief of the suffering. It is National Hospital Day and throughout America small donations will be sought, to care for those ailing who have no means of relief. In Atlanta the day will be observed by the most outstanding women soliciting funds through the sale of tags.

Only once a year do hospitals ask aid from the public. But every day in the year these institutions of mercy render an assistance that is invaluable to the community which they constantly serve. Atlantans will be asked to purchase a "hospital day" tag which is a badge of honor, certifying that they have given their

Farm Hand Confesses Starting Maine Fire

ELLSWORTH, Maine, May 11.—(AP)—Norman Moore, 25, said by authorities to have signed a confession that he set the fire Sunday night which caused $2,000,000 damage and made 400 homeless, was being held prisoner by the national guard today.

Moore was arrested early today as he was working on a farm at Hancock. In his alleged confession, Moore said "something in my head led me to do this."

He told authorities he had been a spectator at a fire which destroyed a vacant factory here about a week before Sunday night's conflagration and had enjoyed watching the flames and seeing the fire apparatus.

British Vet Admits Stealing Nazi Wreath From Cenotaph

LONDON, May 11.—(AP)—Captain James E. Sears, British World War veteran, calmly admitted at a police court hearing today that he had stolen and damaged a swastika-emblazoned wreath from the German ambassador's residence in London.

He maintained a propaganda organization was being set up in London by members of Chancellor Hitler's staff in order to foment disorder.

The complaint was frequently voiced by opposition members that the Hitler staff was allowed in London while communists like Leon Trotsky were barred.

William James Thorne, a labor member, demanded that "marching orders" be given Dr. Rosenberg. To this Sir John Gilmour, the home secretary, replied: "If anything is done contrary to the interests of this country, I will give him his marching orders."

The veteran, a prospective labor candidate for parliament and described as a citizen of irreproachable character by a witness at the hearing, was rebuked and fined 40 shillings ($7.50) by the magistrate for his "ill-mannered and improper" act in causing wilful damage to the flowers.

It was brought out at the trial that the wreath had been thrown into the Thames and had been fished out later by police.

George Lansbury, venerable socialist leader in the house of commons, added to a bitter labiate attack on Dr. Rosenberg the accusation that "the teachings of fascism which these gentlemen (Dr. Rosenberg and other

JURY IS SELECTED IN MITCHELL CASE

Entire Day Consumed in Preliminary To Trial of Bank Executive.

By SIDNEY R. WHIPPLE.

NEW YORK, May 11.—(UP)—A jury of middle-class businessmen, merchants and clerks, will decide whether Charles E. Mitchell, multi-millionaire, is within his legal rights when he recused payment of $558,410.88 in income taxes by making what the government calls "fictitious" stock sales to relatives and friends.

The jury was chosen after a day of monotonous questioning of talesmen by United States Attorney George Z. Medall and Max D. Steuer, chief of defense counsel, for the accused former president of the National City bank.

A panel of 100 had been nearly exhausted before the opposing forces and Judge Henry W. Goodard, before whom "the case is being tried," were satisfied that they had a jury which was neither prejudiced against bankers nor against income tax collectors.

One sensation developed during this tedious questioning. Perhaps inadvertently, Medall revealed that the hitherto unnamed man to whom Mitchell is accused of making a "wash" sale of stock in order to show a loss of $750,000 in 1930 is W. D. Thornton, president of the Green Cananea Copper Corporation, a close friend of Mitchell.

It had previously been charged that "by an exchange of letters," 18,300 shares of National City bank stock, in order to wipe out his alleged income of approximately $3,500,000.

ADHERE TO ETHICS, DOCTORS ARE TOLD

Association President Talks of Functions of State Health Board.

MACON, Ga., May 11.—(P)—Georgia doctors were urged to pay more attention to their county medical societies and to uphold the profession's ethical standards rigorously, in the annual address of the president, Dr. Marvin M. Head, of Zebulon, during this afternoon's session of the Medical Association of Georgia.

"I think I should say something about our state department of health," said Dr. Head. "In the last few weeks, after a hard fight in the legislature, the department has been changed to the old state board of health with 14 members. It has functioned well under the director's management, but has not done the work it would have, had it more appropriations."

"I feel that the state board of health, in giving typhoid vaccine, diphtheria toxoid, etc., is doing that which it would not do if we doctors would take more interest in the practice of medicine and in our community work. Really, the state board of health is doing its best—but are we doing our best?"

"We do not look after the typhoid vaccine, toxoid and smallpox vaccinations as we should, and then we worry about the state board of health doing it. Some one must act. I believe that all these matters could be better handled by the individual practitioner."

There were six technical topics discussed during this afternoon's session. The last scientific program is to be given Friday morning, and election of officers is scheduled for Friday afternoon. Dr. Head is to be succeeded as president by Dr. C. H. Richardson, Jr., of Macon, and a president-elect who will serve in 1934-1935 is to be elected.

The trend has turned from specialists to the old-style family practice, members of the association were told today, Dr. J. Cox Wall, of Eastman, and other physicians discussed the subject during today's sessions.

The speakers said the family doctor is studying and obtaining necessary facilities to give more adequate service to patients. They upheld the need for specialists but said in many cases the family doctor should expand his knowledge and save patients' pocketbooks as well as their health.

Dr. C. H. Richardson, Jr., of Macon, president-elect of the association, said people should not worry about culls and quacks. "Nothing can survive that is not built upon a secure foundation."

Today's program also included a paper on "The Management of Chronic Arthritis" by Dr. Guy J. Dillard, Columbus. Drs. Lawson Thornton, Atlanta, and P. S. Murray, Columbus, also discussed the subject.

Auxiliary Elects.
MACON, Ga., May 11.—(P)—Doctors' wives in the last day of the ninth annual convention of the auxiliary of the Medical Association of Georgia here today, installed new officers and wound up business during the morning; rested in the afternoon and made plans for an elaborate supper dance at the Idle Hour Club tonight.

Coleman, Eastman, recording secretary; Mrs. Eunice Allen, Atlanta, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Usher, Savannah, treasurer, and Mrs. Ben Bashinski, Macon, Student Loan fund chairman.

Urological Officers.

Dr. Ernest Corn, of Macon, retired as president. More than 30 members attended the luncheon and voted to hold their scientific program in Savannah in October.

Dr. Major Fowler, Atlanta, was elected secretary and treasurer. Dr. Samuel J. Sinkov, Atlanta, was named chairman of the executive committee, the other members of which are Dr. W. L. Champion, Atlanta, and Dr. W. P. Jordan, Columbus.

Drinking Biggest College Evil, Says Talmadge in Athens Speech

ATHENS, Ga., May 11.—(P)—Governor Talmadge here today said "the biggest problem in college is drinking," and asked students at the University of Georgia to take the lead in teaching temperance and sobriety. Appearing as one of the speakers in the institute of public affairs, the governor, a Georgia graduate, said sale of 3.2 per cent beer would not solve the prohibition question, but said the educated young men and women of Georgia could.

"I know you can and I am calling on you to do it," he said. The governor spoke in the 101-year-old chapel on the university campus, amplifiers being used to carry his words to an overflow crowd outside the building. President Sanford, of the university, introduced him as "a man of conviction and courage and not a rubber stamp official." Sanford said he did not always agree with the governor, but admired his determination. Talmadge discussed his refusal to call the legislature in special session, and said that if members were called back "it might be the attractions would be so great they would stay there until snow falls."

Referring to economy moves within the state, he said "anyone you cut off is wrong and when you cut salaries those are the one they say should be raised."

He said that if the state and nation is "to get back on its feet we must stop the dole system." He made no reference to re-organization plans for the university.

After his address the governor left for Augusta, where he will deliver an address tomorrow.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks murky, drink a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes these good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, pure, potent herbs, and are amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Demand a substitute, 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

PEACE OFFICERS HONOR TALMADGES

Governor To Address
Convention at Augusta
at Today's Session.

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 11.—(P)—Governor and Mrs. Talmadge were honor guests tonight at a banquet and dance given by the annual convention of the County Peace Officers' Association of Georgia.

The governor will address the convention tomorrow and return to Atlanta immediately afterward for the Saturday meeting of the board of regents.

Governor and Mrs. Talmadge arrived here late today, motoring from Athens, where he addressed the institute of public affairs at the University of Georgia. They were met at the Richmond county line by city and county officials riding in the red automobile of the chief of Augusta's fire department and escorted to their hotel to the tune of screaming sirens. The keynote of the opening day of the convention was "education through the prevention of crime." It was stressed in an address by Solicitor General George Hains, of the Augusta circuit superior court.

Judge G. H. Howard, of the Fulton (Atlanta) superior court, also addressed the convention, which had before it proposals for a state criminal identification bureau, a statewide uniform traffic code and a highway patrol.

Other measures studied by the association's legislative committee with a view to submitting them for action are revision of the state code as it affects the office of county ordinary, legislation requiring drivers' licenses of all who operate automobiles and "equitable and fair" tax and license on buses.

Sheriff M. Gary Whittle, of Richmond county, convened the convention and turned the gavel over to Chief of Police Ben T. Watkins, of Macon, president of the association.

Chief of Police Ray, of Albany, Ga., will receive a medal and $100 awarded annually by the Atlanta Constitution for the best instance of detective work in Georgia. He was responsible for trailing and capturing a group of bandits that robbed a bank in a town near Albany a year ago.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks murky, drink a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes these good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, pure, potent herbs, and are amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Demand a substitute, 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Mills at Cartersville, Cedartown, Rockmart Go on Double Shift Monday

CARTERSVILLE, Ga., May 11.—Full time, double-shift operation of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company plants here, in Rockmart and Cedartown will begin Monday morning, it was announced Thursday by Cliff Slusser, vice president of the Goodyear Company in charge of operations.

Mr. Slusser, accompanied by Sam A. Moore, in charge of all textile operations of the Goodyear Company, and H. Gillen, his assistant, conferred with G. L. Parmenter, superintendent of the local plant, before announcement was made of the capacity resumption of operations.

Two thousand men will be employed in the three plants which provide fabric for Goodyear tire plants in all parts of the United States and in foreign countries.

Hawks Land Safely After Stall Over Gotham

NEW YORK, May 11.—(P)—The fuel system of Frank Hawks' new long-distance speed plane quit on him today as he was 3,000 feet above the towers of Manhattan, and his engine died.

Hawks glided downward across half the town and landed safely on the polo field on Governors' Island, in the bay. Repairing the gasoline line, he took off again and continued to Floyd Bennett field, where he had been going for fuel tests from Teterboro, N. J.

Tests on the plane are being pushed in an effort to make a speed flight to South America before beginning of the rainy season.

Teachers in Chicago To Get Salary Checks

CHICAGO, May 11.—(P)—The city's unpaid school teachers who stormed banks and offices of officialdom in demonstrations were promised half of their $30,000,000 overdue salaries within three or four days by Mayor Edward J. Kelly today. Checks for part of it were put in the mails.

The 14,000 teachers immediately will receive payment of the September pay roll—$3,400,000. The remainder of half the money owed, about $13,000,000, will be obtained soon through the sale of additional city tax anticipation warrants to bankers.

The sale was contingent upon the expected passage of a resolution by the board of education pledging itself not to issue 1932 warrants in excess of $22,000,000, of 50 per cent of the amount expected by the board for the year.

The pending pay day was hailed by leaders of teachers as a culmination of their drive to bring the teachers' plight before the public. Students struck for several days, leaving their classes.

Three More Are Slain In Cuban Disorders

HAVANA, May 11.—(P)—Shootings connected with the Cuban political turmoil left three more persons dead today.

Alfonso Llanas, a plain clothes "expert" policeman, was shot down last night. Julio Vidal, his brother-in-law, said Llanas had been threatened with death "ever since this government came in."

Quessada Zuleta and Callo Alvarez, escaped political prisoners, were killed by officers. An official announcement said they refused to surrender.

VIRGINIAN NAMED HEAD OF COMMUNITY CHESTS

John Stewart Bryan, Richmond Publisher, Accepts Presidency.

NEW YORK, May 11.—(P)—Acceptance of the presidency of Community Chests and Councils, Inc., by John Stewart Bryan, publisher of the Richmond (Va.) News-Leader, and former president of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, was announced today by Allen T. Burns, executive director of the councils.

The announcement was made in connection with the incorporation of the Association of Community Chests and Councils under a New York charter. It said that more than $82,000,000 was raised for 1933 purposes by the 410 cities in the country having Community Chests.

National officers announced to serve with Bryan include William Cooper Procter, Cincinnati, Ohio, honorary president; Frederic R. Kellogg, Morristown, N. J., first vice president; Vance McCormack, Harrisburg, Pa.; Paul Schoellkopf, Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Henry D. Sharpe, Providence, R. I., vice presidents; Hendon Chubb, The Oranges, N. J., treasurer; C. M. Bookman, Cincinnati, secretary, and Allen T. Burns, executive director.

NEW YORK, May 11.—(P)—Miss Helen Lewis Thatcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Thatcher, of New Orleans, La., and L. Richard Bamberger, of New York, were married today in the municipal chapel at city hall.

Mrs. Bamberger attended Sophie Newcomb College in New Orleans and has been living here for the past three years. Bamberger is a graduate of Harvard College and is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Girl Autoist Ends Life In Grief Over Accident

CHICAGO, May 11.—(P)—Marie Bode, 17-year-old Riverside High school girl, drove the family car against a youngster riding a bicycle yesterday.

The seven-year-old boy was seriously hurt—how seriously hospital attendants have not yet determined. The girl was prostrated with remorse after the accident.

Today they found her dead. She had hanged herself.

Rogers Offers Georgia Meat In Its Local Markets Today

Scott W. Allen, president of Rogers Grocery Stores; C. E. Taylor, market manager of the Walton Street Rogers Store, and L. M. Clough, meat buyer for the Rogers Stores, inspect some of the prize winning champion beef raised in this state and purchased by Rogers for their many markets. They are inspecting a quarter of beef from prize-winning stock that won blue ribbons at the recent Macon show. The beef was from the ranch of Dr. Michael Hoke, now of Warm Springs.

Prize beef raised by Dr. Michael Hoke on his farm near Albany will be placed on sale today in all Rogers markets, and Atlantans will be shown that it is possible to raise beef of high quality in Georgia.

Dr. Hoke, the celebrated orthopedic surgeon, entered his cattle at a recent show in Macon, and captured most of the prizes offered there. Next to bone surgery, Dr. Hoke is most interested in cattle raising. He believes that Georgia can raise cattle quite as good as the middle west, and in this case demonstrated his belief.

The Rogers stores, also wishing to encourage a Georgia industry as well as offer a good article of merchandise to their stores, bought these prize cattle at Macon, brought them here, and now are offering the meat in their markets.

Rogers doesn't sell Georgia beef as a rule, because comparatively little of its standard is raised in Georgia. The management hopes that this demonstration will help quality beef raising in Georgia, so that in future years the state can be self-sustaining from this standpoint.

Dr. Hoke demonstrated clearly that beef can be raised in Georgia commercially, and it can be of a quality equaling and surpassing western meat.

WRIGHT TO BE BACKED FOR SHOALS POSITION

Georgia House Delegation To Caucus Saturday To Formulate Plans.

By GLADSTONE WILLIAMS.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The Georgia house delegation will hold a caucus next Saturday for the purpose of endorsing former Representative William C. Wright, of Newnan, Ga., as a member of the commission to be set up under terms of the Norris Muscle Shoals bill now in conference between the two houses.

As a member of the house military affairs committee Judge Wright, who voluntarily retired from congress last March, was largely instrumental in drafting the Muscle Shoals measure and is considered an ideal commissioner to supervise the putting to work of the vast water power development in Alabama.

Before his resignation from congress Judge Wright was one of the most seasoned members of the lower chamber and his advice was constantly sought by the younger members of his state's delegation. He was not a ready debater or speech-maker but he knew congressional procedure and he knew always be depended upon to serve the best interests of his people.

The commission to be appointed by President Roosevelt, under the terms of the Muscle Shoals bill, will exercise wide authority in developing electric power on an enormous scale, and in addition, it will play a large part in bringing to fruition the president's dream of fertilizing and reforesting the broad Tennessee valley.

In addition to having been a member of the committee which drafted the original Muscle Shoals measure, Mr. Wright is an experienced lawyer and for two years was chairman of the democratic executive committee of Georgia. He was first elected to congress in 1918 to fill the unexpired term of W. C. Adamson, who fathered the Adamson eight-hour law.

Chicagoan Wins Divorce From Disobedient Wife

VERSAILLES, France, May 11.—(P)—Nelson Morris, Chicago millionaire, and Jeanne Aubert, French stage star, were divorced today.

Morris was awarded the divorce in a counter-action against his wife's suit, the court holding that she had deserted him to appear on the stage in disobedience to the husband, whose will is supreme in French law.

Gandhi Much Weakened On Fourth Day of Fast

POONA, India, May 11.—(P)—The Mahatma Gandhi, visibly weakened in the fourth day of his projected three weeks' fast, tonight had to be carried on a stretcher to his bed.

The national leader was no longer able to do any spinning, an occupation which took up much of the first two days of his fast, which is in protest against treatment of the lowest classes.

His personal physician expressed disappointment that the Mahatma had fallen in health so quickly. Friends have expressed fear that he cannot survive the ordeal.

Mrs. Gandhi was released from jail today and hurried to her husband's bedside from Ahmedabad. Her release was unconditional. She had been imprisoned on charges that she had not paid revenue due the government.

Five Men Arrested In Levee Dynamiting

BELZONI, Miss., May 11.—(P)—Levee disturbances along the Yazoo river were climaxed late today with the arrest of five men charged with cutting and blasting protection walls. The men taken into custody by Sheriff John Purvis, Humphreys county, after cutting of a Wasp lake levee two miles north of here yesterday and blasting of a Yazoo river west side wall early this morning, were being held without bond.

Those under arrest are: Ben Hale and Ollie Ferguson, Humphreys county farmers, residing on the east side of the river where many acres have been under water for weeks, and three Sheriff brothers, whose given names were not recorded.

The Sheriff, Sheriff Purvis said, told officers they came here from Texas to fish. The sheriff said he was investigating a report that vandals "had been paid $50" to cut the Wasp lake levee. All five men denied any connection with the levee disturbances.

RAILS WILL SUPPORT REORGANIZATION PLAN

Union Pacific Head Predicts United Backing for Roosevelt Scheme.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(P)—Carl R. Gray, president of the Union Pacific railroad, told the senate interstate commerce committee today that "railroads will go along" with the administration's railroad reorganization plan.

Opposing the many changes in the legislation recommended by Donald Richberg, counsel for the Railway Labor Executive Association, Gray said they were "based upon a false premise."

"They assume," Gray added, "that the co-ordinating committees of the roads will have some new powers. They cannot exercise any more powers than the management has today."

He said the effect on communities and labor would be studied by the committees and the co-ordinator and "the committees can do nothing without the assistance of the co-ordinator."

"He can disagree or agree with them," he added.

Gray opposed giving labor representation on the regional committees on the ground that there would be disagreement and since the co-ordinator would rule on all questions it would save "one step" in the procedure by leaving labor out.

MICHIGAN PASSES LABOR AMENDMENT

ATLANTA, GA., MAY 12, 1933.

A SERIOUS SITUATION.

The enactment of ordinances by the councils of cities and towns of Georgia, removing local barriers to the sale of 3.2 beer, creates an unusual situation, and one that becomes more so in view of the fact that the federal government announces that it will issue licenses for the manufacture or sale of 3.2 beer in Georgia.

While these ordinances are termed "legalization" measures, they cannot be correctly so termed, because no local government in Georgia has the power to legalize any commodity barred by the laws of the state.

What they really do is merely to advise the tradesmen of these towns and cities that they need not fear interference from the local authorities in breaking a law on the statute books of the state.

Undoubtedly the great majority of the people of Georgia, and especially of those communities where beer-sale ordinances have been passed, are opposed to the ban of the state law, but the fact remains that such official approval of the breaking of the law can but result in a still further increase in the disrespect for all laws that has, unfortunately, developed since the adoption of the eighteenth amendment.

Apparently the governor is not as yet convinced that an extra session of the legislature is desirable, as evidenced by his statement Thursday in Monroe that he wished "people would quit bothering him about beer."

But it is a serious question as to whether or not some kind of state action will not become imperative. If, as seems probable, the action of local governments in authorizing the sale of 3.2 beer within their confines spreads to a majority of the communities of the state.

It is certain that Savannah, Augusta and Brunswick, among the cities of the state, will have open sales, while smaller towns, such as Alma, Douglas and Vidalia, are rapidly following suit.

Under the federal law 3.2 beer can be legally carried through Georgia to a state which permits its sale.

Should county officers make cases against those transporting beer through the state, the defense will be that it is on its way to Florida. In communities in which it is sold by act of the municipality it will be difficult to secure conviction.

With beer legalized in the bordering states of Tennessee, Florida and South Carolina, there will be plenty of beer in Georgia, the only difference being that in these states millions in tax revenues will go to the public treasuries, while in Georgia this revenue will go into the pockets of the bootleggers.

Certainly no good to the state can result from a situation which finds local governments approving the stand of the national government that 3.2 beer is non-intoxicating, but with the state government holding to the theory that it is.

To The Constitution it seems that an extra session to deal with this question is inevitable.

Another reason why congress seems so tame is the fact that it can pass the president's bills and the buck all at once.

Science tells us that hair continues to grow after death. So, for that matter, do hairs.

AS COTTON GOES UP!

The steady increase in cotton prices during the past few weeks gives promise of early return of an era of prosperity to the south.

The nine-cent mark was crossed yesterday.

If the farmers receive nine cents a pound for the crop now planted, the entrance of this section into a period of genuine good times is assured. If, as is now strongly indicated, the price goes to ten cents and beyond, there will be more ready cash in the agricultural south than there has been for a long time.

Not only will this year's crop be raised more cheaply than any since the Great War, but the farmer has learned during the past four years the folly that lies in planting only cotton.

This year four out of every five Georgia farms will be operated on the live-at-home basis, thus automatically increasing the net profit represented by the cash receipts from cotton.

The farmers of the south are not only deeply in debt but they are badly in need of all the commodities necessary for farm operation and for the comfort of their families. Thus the money they will receive for this year's cotton crop will find its way quickly into the channels of trade and every line of industry and business will feel the effect.

Nine-cent cotton this summer and fall will be the definite end of the depression for the southern farmer.

If prices are higher, his prosperity will be measured by the degree of the advance and the south will have economically come back into her own.

HOSPITAL TAG DAY.

On Friday more than 500 women, representatives of the women's auxiliaries of six local hospitals, will sell tags on the streets of Atlanta to swell the fund for the maintenance of the charity wards of these hospitals.

Not only should all Atlantans buy one of these tags, but their contributions for them should be liberal, for free medical treatment for thousands of patients depends upon the response of the public to this appeal.

Some idea of the far-reaching service given by these charity wards is to be gained from the fact that in 1932 an equivalent of one person out of every three in Atlanta's population received free treatment in them.

The hospitals are the Georgia Baptist, the Wesley Memorial, Henrietta Eggleston Memorial, St. Joseph's infirmary, the Scottish Rite and Grady. Mayor Key by proclamation has designated Friday as Hospital Day and it is planned to make the second Friday in May each year in future the occasion for a public appeal for funds for the charity wards of these outstanding institutions for the relief of suffering humanity.

Each of the six hospitals will keep open house Friday in order that the public may secure first-hand information about the service to the city's sick and suffering.

Every dollar contributed in the purchase of these tags will mean just so much lessening of suffering and the hastening of the return to health and happiness of some unfortunate Atlantian.

This is one tag day when the gifts should be liberal, and undoubtedly will be, because of the direct appeal to the sympathy and the humanitarian instincts of young and old alike.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

By Pierre Van Paassen

How About Germany?

The Manchester Guardian, great liberal journal, is the latest to be barred from entry into Germany because its special correspondents in the reich insist that the terror and discrimination against Jews and liberals of all shades goes on unabated. That this is so is confirmed by scores of European newspapers who still have representatives in Germany. The Hitler government denies the atrocity accounts, denies there ever was a terror and declares that everything is calm in the reich. How calm it is we may judge from the masses of refugees pouring over the frontiers.

I have just come from Ennschede on the German-Dutch frontier where official figures show 1,500 refugees have crossed in the last two weeks. The Danish government reports whole trainsloads of fugitives. Here in the United States, these things are written, it is the same thing. Thousands of refugees have passed through the forest of Euphrates, which extends for miles on both sides of the Belgian and German frontiers. Reluctant though the refugees may be to speak at all, I happened to hear a goodly number of them tell the relief officers of the Religious Society of Friends, the Quakers, of their recent experiences and the circumstances which led them to abandon home and possessions to seek asylum abroad.

It is now an extremely risky business to try and leave Germany. The frontiers are heavily guarded. Passports have been called in. Nobody may leave. Nobody inside Germany may speak of what has taken place. Though the press is free, oppositional press is proscribed. Foreign newspapers are barred. Home newspapers are not permitted to comment. Though the press is free, oppositional press is proscribed. Foreign newspapers are barred. Home newspapers are not permitted to comment. Though the press is free, oppositional press is proscribed. Foreign newspapers are barred. Home newspapers are not permitted to comment.

Young China Talks.

A famous European professor had spoken on the hypocrisy and the hall filled with students and visitors was silent. "Has anyone any question to ask or remark to make?" asked the professor.

Up jumped a young Chinese woman, who said in excellent French: "I shall not try to be consistent for I am not clever enough and it is too boring to try, but I want to say that I have a great deal of clapping being said in this world about superficiality and inconsistency and hypocrisy of women. Granted that a great many women are liars and flatterers and behave like nitwits and morons, I have come to the conclusion that they do it to please men, having discovered that most men are so. This valuable trait cannot be the person with whom they are constantly associated to pretend to be at least equal to themselves, and that in order to survive with any amiability at all in their emotional relationships, women have put on the money-business of being utter fools."

The Frontier Men Who Can Lick Anybody Else Are the Last To Welcome Law, Order

By Robert Quillen

When men say that a nation has decided to do certain things, they mean that a king or a president or a statesman has so decided. In practice, a nation is the man or the group that directs its affairs.

Thus any plan to end warfare is foredoomed to failure unless it adjusts itself to the peculiarities of human nature. It cannot hope to succeed if it requires a change in the instinctive and age-old reactions of mankind.

These truths are self-evident. Why, then, are statesmen unable to find a plan that will end warfare?

If the way out of a difficulty is obvious, and men fail to find their way out, isn't it clearly apparent that they are blind because they will not see?

How can nations be controlled? Well, how are individual men controlled?

If you would compel a nation to do justice and keep the peace, observe the method by which an individual is compelled to do justice and keep the peace.

Man's natural inclination is to take what he desires—that is, to steal. His natural inclination is to destroy those who interfere with him or offend him.

How is this inclination overcome? By fear. Apparently by fear of public opinion, but actually by fear of the physical force that public opinion has at its command.

In short, the ordinary man does not steal or maim or kill because he knows that a force stronger than himself will restrain and punish him. He obeys the rules to save his skin. He doesn't crash the red light because he knows he can't get away with it.

If there were no policemen or courts or jails, would moral force or signed agreements prevent the strong from taking advantage of the weak? Would you deny yourself a coveted treasure if no power on earth could prevent you from taking it?

It is superior force that makes men obey the rules. Nothing else, can, as all experience has shown. And nothing but a superior force can make nations behave decently.

Statesmen can insure peace by establishing that force. But big nations still dread a police force more than they dread the risks of war.

DAY BY DAY

In Georgia's History

One hundred and forty-one years ago today President George Washington entered Georgia on an inspection tour of the southern states.

On May 15, 1781, who resumed command of the Georgia state militia?

For the two best original 15-word answers to the foregoing question, Loew's Grand theater, co-operating with The Constitution, will award $250 to the winner.

Answers must be mailed to the Day-by-Day Editor, The Constitution, and must bear a postmark not later than midnight tomorrow.

Up jumped a young Chinese woman, who said in excellent French: "I shall not try to be consistent for I am not clever enough and it is too boring to try, but I want to say that I have a great deal of clapping being said in this world about superficiality and inconsistency and hypocrisy of women."

Granted that a great many women are liars and flatterers and behave like nitwits and morons, I have come to the conclusion that they do it to please men, having discovered that most men are so.

This valuable trait cannot be the person with whom they are constantly associated to pretend to be at least equal to themselves, and that in order to survive with any amiability at all in their emotional relationships, women have put on the money-business of being utter fools.

On Friday more than 500 women, representatives of the women's auxiliaries of six local hospitals, will sell tags on the streets of Atlanta to swell the fund for the maintenance of the charity wards of these hospitals.

Not only should all Atlantans buy one of these tags, but their contributions for them should be liberal, for free medical treatment for thousands of patients depends upon the response of the public to this appeal.

Some idea of the far-reaching service given by these charity wards is to be gained from the fact that in 1932 an equivalent of one person out of every three in Atlanta's population received free treatment in them.

The hospitals are the Georgia Baptist, the Wesley Memorial, Henrietta Eggleston Memorial, St. Joseph's infirmary, the Scottish Rite and Grady. Mayor Key by proclamation has designated Friday as Hospital Day and it is planned to make the second Friday in May each year in future the occasion for a public appeal for funds for the charity wards of these outstanding institutions for the relief of suffering humanity.

Each of the six hospitals will keep open house Friday in order that the public may secure first-hand information about the service to the city's sick and suffering.

Every dollar contributed in the purchase of these tags will mean just so much lessening of suffering and the hastening of the return to health and happiness of some unfortunate Atlantian.

This is one tag day when the gifts should be liberal, and undoubtedly will be, because of the direct appeal to the sympathy and the humanitarian instincts of young and old alike.

Alas! By the time you earn money enough to enjoy life, you are working so hard you don't have time.

SAVANNAH POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOW SHARP INCREASE

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 11.—(AP)—Postal receipts increased 24 per cent in the first quarter of 1933 over the corresponding period in 1932.

REVENUE GAIN NOTED BY GEORGIA RAILROAD

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 11.—(AP)—A slight increase in freight revenue last month was reported by the Georgia railroad.

Officials said the improvement was due to a general upturn in business and the inauguration of fast freight train schedules from Charleston, S. C., to Atlanta.

The Savannah and Western Carolina railroad from Charleston to Augusta and thence over the Georgia railroad to Atlanta. They cover the 400 mile route in 24 hours.

At least 50 trainmen have been recruited to work in the district within the last 30 days.

In addition, car movements of the Wheeling and Lake Erie the first 10 days of May were 88 per cent ahead of the corresponding period in 1932.

Business of both the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio lines has increased since the first of April.

The Harvey Loeber Lumber Company here announced that wages would be increased 10 per cent beginning next week.

EAST ST. LOUIS PLANT REPORTS HEAVY BUSINESS

NEVADA BUSINESS SIKES GROWING CLEARER

RENO, Nev., May 11.—(AP)—Nevada could see her financial horizon clearing today after months of business stagnation.

The state's economy is beginning to show signs of improvement, with a plan to form a distinct new bank, under deposit control, to replace the 12 closed Winfield banks in this state.

Expected that a million dollars in tied-up deposits will be liberated next month.

congress, but no conclusion was reached in either conference. One argument was the green advance by bonus payment advocates in congress has been that this method should be used in spreading new currency which might be issued under the inflation bill.

There was no indication, however, that the administration has changed its opposition to payment of the bonus at this time, and the conferences were regarded as simply a survey of the situation, preparatory possibly to moves by the president for heading off any congressional movement in congress to raise the issue.

One part of the bonus army settled comfortably into a routine of food and shelter provided by the government, while the opposing group for control of this year's movement wandered through the city.

BOOM! Gathers Force in Four Quarters as Al Maintains Silence.

NEW YORK, May 11.—(AP)—A move to draft Alfred E. Smith for mayor of America's largest city gained momentum in four quarters today.

Meanwhile, the former governor himself took no move either to halt or to accelerate the clamor.

A close friend, however, explained that "democracy's 1928 presidential candidate is only lukewarm to the idea of becoming mayor; that he is interested at present in his business ventures, and that the shoving of his present income of about $100,000 a year by the $25,000-a-year mayoralty salary would be a point to be considered."

It also was stated he definitely will wait for a considerable time—until the situation shapes up more clearly—before making any statement.

The two situations are: If by chance New York were to get into a municipal financial tangle like Chicago did, or if a powerful fusion movement for an anti-Tammany mayor were to develop.

But these facts failed to halt the spreading movement.

Stickers reading "Draft Al Smith for Mayor" appeared on a vast number of automobiles, trucks and taxicabs.

Hundreds of volunteers circulated petitions on the Poughatam Democratic Club of Business and Professional Men calling on Smith to run as an independent.

LINDY KIDNAPERS NAMED BY MEANS

as saying: "It's going to be a big thing with a lot of publicity."

Means declined to participate, he said, being interested only in finding Henderson, whom he had known since 1928 as a radical leader in Detroit.

But Fenton insisted, Means said, and told "me the case might be worth ten, fifteen or twenty thousand dollars to me as a contact man."

Read of Case.

"On March 2, 1932," he continued, "I read in the papers that Lindbergh's son had been kidnapped. I reached the conclusion that Irving Fenton and I were in a position to make use of the kidnapping of an active part in it. I believed they would return the child."

It was on March 4, he said, that he received a telephone call from Mrs. McLean, asking him to undertake the recovery of the baby. On the same day he was introduced by telephone to G. Greenberg, who was a witness declared, offered to obtain authority from Lindbergh for Means to work on the case.

On that day his telephone rang, Means testified, and this time it was Fenton. They agreed to meet in front of Mrs. McLean's house that night.

I drove to Mrs. McLean's and talked to Fenton. I asked him if he had been able to locate Henderson. Fenton said Henderson was in New Jersey. He asked if I had seen the newspapers and said "We're in a devil of a situation; we can't get rid of that baby." I told Fenton to keep in touch with me.

By this time Mrs. McLean was actively interested in the case. She said $100,000 for ransom and gave to Means. It was in old bills of $100 and $200 denominations that she stuffed it into a cigar carton, Means said, but the bills did not quite fill the box.

Stuffed in Wig.

"Mrs. McLean," the witness declared, "said to me 'I've got something to fill that box.' She stuffed a wig in the box. She gave me the wig and the wig was stuffed with money."

The testimony averred here as Means related how Mrs. McLean asked him why he was sent to the penitentiary in 1925. He said he replied:

"It was for keeping my mouth shut. I was because William J. Burns sent me to see Elmer Dyer, then assistant secretary of the treasury, and I was given permission to investigate Andrew Mellon for the purpose of having President Harding remove him from the cabinet. Mellon had shipped over a million dollars' worth of whisky to soldiers in France and when he found he couldn't sell it he had it shipped back to this country and put in government warehouses. From there it was stolen by me."

"President Harding said he was going to keep the old man (Mellon) in the cabinet because there was no use who could argue against a payment of $100,000,000. Mr. Mellon then started against me and I was sent to the pen."

Means then went over the familiar story of the kidnapping of Charles and Elsie, Texas, where he was trying to establish contact with the kidnapers. He saw Henderson and Fenton, he said, and once they showed him a baby, swathed to the eyes in blankets.

Means contends he finally turned the $100,000 over to a mysterious "Number One" on a lonely road. His arrest followed. He was unable to say where Fenton and Henderson are now.

LUNSFORD ADMITS PLOTTING ROBBERY

Three Others Implicated in Story of Bank Hold-Up at Fayetteville.

Admitting that he planned the daring robbery of the Farmers and Merchants bank at Fayetteville last Saturday, John D. Lunsford, 484 Capitol avenue, Thursday told county police officers that J. D. Lee, alias "Ricks," held by city police, and two other men staged the hold-up.

Lunsford, arrested Sunday morning at his home, confessed to plotting the robbery, implicated Lee and gave officers the names and descriptions of the other two men who, according to his statement, were with Lee.

He was transferred from Fulton power to the Fayette county jail after his Thursday confession and officers were confident of making other arrests "before very long."

Officers were confident that Lunsford's story was true. They checked his alibi about spending the night with a brother in Fayetteville and it stood up. They were of the opinion that the other three failed to split the $1,600 obtained from the bank vault with Lunsford.

Lunsford's admission was made to County Officers Cal Cates, Jack Carroll and Ernest Hanning. All three have been active in the investigation.

Meanwhile, police admitted that Lee and furnished them "a hot tip" on the two men believed to have been with him but they were unwilling to say that Lee had confessed to having been one of the principals.

The robbery of the Fayetteville bank was one of the boldest reported in a long time. The bandits went to the home of H. C. Hewell, the cashier, Friday night and forced him to accompany them to the bank. When told that the time lock would not permit the bank vault to be opened until Saturday morning, the men remained at the home of Hewell while the others forced the cashier to open the vault. All made an escape before anyone but the Hewell family knew anything about the hold-up.

Dixie Storm Victims Get Loan Approval

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(AP)—The senate today added an amendment to a deficiency appropriation bill to permit construction loans to tornado and cyclone stricken areas of the south from the $5,000,000 fund previously appropriated for relief of earthquake damaged southern California.

The amendment, offered by Senator Byrnes, democrat, of South Carolina, was intended to provide aid for the South Carolina counties recently damaged by a tornado.

Byrnes said it would permit loans to governmental subdivisions in Anderson and Laurens counties, where the damage was centered.

It also would apply to any other areas damaged during 1933 by tornado or cyclone, he said.

treating situation," said that he will use every power of his court to deter drunk and reckless driving. "It is a terrible thing, and something should be done to stop it," Judge Wood said. "I am compelled to be severe on drunk drivers, and it is my policy to forbid the use of automobiles to drunk drivers for a period of 12 months."

Police Recorder A. W. Callaway pledged co-operation in the drive to break up reckless driving and reduce accidents, and Recorder John L. Cone said that "everybody knows my record on drunk and reckless driving cases, and they know that I have no leniency in such cases."

Among those attending the conference in Sturdivant's office were Belling Jones, president, and James J. Smiley Jr., secretary of the Atlanta Traffic and Safety League; Councilman Hastings; C. A. Smith and W. P. Edwards, of the Georgia Power Company; Captain Jack Malcolm, head of the police traffic squads; H. J. Haas, representing the insurance companies; A. L. Myers and Sam B. Levy, of the mayor's traffic commission; Jack Strauss, secretary of the Atlanta Motor Club; Duncan Peck, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and superior officers of the police department, including captains and lieutenants.

Indorsement of the plan to obtain an Atlanta driver's license law was voiced by a number of speakers, who pointed out that if this city adopts such an ordinance many other cities in the state probably will follow and the driver licensing policy will become statewide, forcing adoption of a state law.

Captain Malcolm said that too many officers have been interfering with the making of traffic cases, and Chief Sturdivant informed the group that "all of the policemen are going to be interested in making cases for their merits from now on. Police should be educated in safety matters, he said."

Mr. Haas said that liability insurance rates here, already high, will go higher if the increase in accidents continues. Mr. Peck said that figures show that enactment of a driver's license law reduces accidents by at least 20 per cent.

Mr. Hastings said that "council is so alarmed over this situation that we are not going to have the trouble we have had before. Intercession for traffic violators is going to stop, and officers can make cases with the full assurance that people of influence will let them alone."

Mr. Hastings said that defective brakes can be controlled by having examining officers refuse to issue drivers' licenses until brakes are in good order. Chief Sturdivant urged enactment of a law prohibiting the sale of cars by junk yards for use on the city's streets, drawing attention to the danger of "school boys buying a junk car for $15, getting a $35 car and riding about with the car filled to the breaking point."

Opposition to a proposed city driver's license law was expressed Thursday in a communication from the Atlanta Automobile Association, composed of automobile dealers and a number of businesses engaged in allied lines. The association, through B. V. Stodghill, president, said that Chattanooga, Augusta and Savannah have all passed city driver's license laws without reducing accidents.

"If the police department is unable to catch reckless drivers, hit-and-run drivers, rum-runners, and others violating present traffic laws, we do not see how a city driver's license law would help the situation one particle," the association said. The organization voiced indorsement of a state-wide driver's license law.

PARAGUAY APPLAUDED FOR WAR DECLARATION

Industrialists Await Expressions of Neutrality by Neighbor Nations.

By G. D. SEYMOUR.
ASUNCION, Paraguay, May 11.—(AP)—Messages applauding Paraguay's declaration of war against Bolivia continued to pour into the chancellery today, but many industrialists and others with interests in the disputed Gran Chaco area expressed great concern.

These awaited anxiously decrees of neutrality by Argentina, Brazil, Chile and Peru, hoping that the terms uniformly would specify that war materials may not pass to the belligerents over neutral territory.

Such statements by neighboring countries would not affect Paraguay because the Paraguay river, an important outlet, is internationalized. They would, however, virtually halt Bolivian importations.

On a blockade of Bolivia, the Paraguayan government places its greatest hope for the termination of the 11 months' conflict in the vast Chaco area, which was formalized in yesterday's declaration.

PARAGUAYAN ACTION PROTESTED TO LEAGUE

GENEVA, May 11.—(AP)—Bolivia, in a protest today to the League of Nations against Paraguay's declaration of war, said Paraguay had placed herself outside the League covenant and had incurred the sanctions provided for in Article 16 of the covenant.

The council would even be empowered to invite nations to send a punitive force against Paraguay.

If the League council, which was convened in a special session today to consider the declaration of war in the Gran Chaco dispute, would accept the Bolivian view, it would mean a recommendation to world powers to sever economic and financial relations with Paraguay.

The council would even be empowered to invite nations to send a punitive force against Paraguay.

SOVIET NOTIFIES CHINA RAIL LINE WILL BE SOLD

MOSCOW, May 11.—(AP)—Russia told the Chinese nationalist government tonight that China had no rights in the Chinese Eastern railway in Manchuria and announced the intention of selling the line to the new state of Manchukuo.

Advising the Nanking regime directly that the Peiping-Mukden treaties of 1924, governing the joint operation of the Chinese Eastern by soviet Russia and China, were considered void, Foreign Commissioner Maxim Litvinoff revealed the decision to sell the line to keep peace in the Far East.

Under the Peiping-Mukden agreements, the C. E. R. was supposed to revert to China gratis in 1936 and at any time before that year the Chinese republic was given the right to buy the road from Moscow.

The HONEYMOON MURDER

BY CAROLYN WELLS

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

The third day after Perilla Fairfax and the wealthy Corey Malden are married at the Long Island summer home of John Lovell, her stepfather, Corey dies suddenly in their hotel at Washington where they stop en route by motor to his mother's home at Richmond, Md. As Perilla's motor party was about to start from Warren, Ohio, on Friday morning, Hilda somewhat timidly mentioned this fact.

"Why, that's where your sister lives, isn't it?" asked Perilla. "The one who married the Hayfield?"

"Yes," and Hilda smiled. "You see," she said to the others, who were gathered on the hotel veranda, "my sister Rose married a man named Harry A. Field. As he usually signs it H. A. Field, of course he's called Hayfield. They live in Scottstown and their place is Rosecroft. Now, I'm wondering," she looked appealingly at Perilla, "if you wouldn't all spend tonight at Rosecroft instead of going to a Columbus hotel. I know Rosey could make you comfortable—she has lots of room."

"And how will sister like a horde of Assyrians coming down like a wolf on the fold?" asked Garth, smiling at the impulsive invitation.

"Oh, she'll adore it! What do you say, Perilla?"

"I think it would be the most awful imposition, but if you guarantee us a welcome, I'm ready to go if the others agree."

Hilda clasped her hands. "I'll go and ask Buckle to send some telegrams," and in 10 minutes the whole affair was in Buckle's capable hands. Perilla asked Hilda to ride in the car with her, that they might talk it over. They were in the car when Garth rode with them.

"You'll love the Fields," Dunstan said. "They never know what they're going to do next; we'd better telephone them in the afternoon, when we know about what time we'll arrive."

Telegrams from their enforced host and hostess were received en route and were all glad hospitality and welcome. They were expected in time for a late dinner, they were told when they telephoned later.

Hayfield, a big man, and the embodiment of boisterous good nature, checked his merriment at the advent of Perilla. But she, never a spoilsport, met him halfway. Rosey, a blonde doll, pounced upon her sister, and sent the rest of the party under guidance of her servants.

"Back to the lounge in 20 minutes," she told them. "Come in pajamas, if you like, but don't waste time prinking. They obeyed her almost literally, and gathered for cocktails at the prescribed time.

The dinner was admirable and of just the sort calculated to interest a lot of hungry motorists.

"Come on, girls," said Rosey, rising. "We'll have our coffee in peace by ourselves, and the men can come in when they are ready."

But before Perilla left the table, Hay said to her in a low voice, "Don't disappear until I see you again. I have a word for you alone."

She nodded and went on to the comfortable lounge where coffee awaited them in front of the blazing log fire.

When the men came in, Hay, going straight to Perilla, led her off to his own small den.

"You see, in this way," he said, after he had made her comfortable and closed the door, "I never knew your husband, but it chances that two of his friends are my friends also. At least, they have always appeared to be. But I am beginning to doubt one of them."

"Do I know these two friends?" asked Perilla, fearful of what the answer might be.

"I think you do, but I'm not sure. One is Richard Carleton, who is, I think, in New York tonight, and the other is Roger Garth, who is here with you."

"I can understand the idea regarding Mr. Carleton. But we should be sure. Is he the one you are doubting?"

"Yes; there is also another. Do you know Mr. Carmichael?"

"Yes, I do. He was one of my husband's dearest friends."

"And I know nothing about him, personally. But I only want to warn you to be careful how you take up with men pretending to be friends of your late husband. They may be sincere, and they may not."

"Mr. Field, for the last week or more I have been continually warned against this man, that man and the other man. I am obliged for these warnings. I am willing to obey them, but what can I do? I have not been subjected to any disrespect or rudeness from them; how can I take steps to avoid them when they never come my way?"

"Haven't you run up against Carleton?"

"No, I have never seen him except at his own house, the day we went there to a tea. Don't you think I am almost too watchfully taken care of?"

"You are in a dangerous position and while you are in the hands of capable advisers and assistants, they don't seem to get you anywhere."

"Where do I want to be got to?"

"Where you will be free from the slanders and lies of that poison-tongued old woman, Madame Malden."

"You really think she wants to annoy me, then?"

"Not only annoy you, but get you accused of your husband's murder and then get you convicted."

"But why—why does she want to torment the girl who loved her son and whom her son loved?"

"That's just it. The old woman really believes you killed Corey. She is not making believe; she is in earnest. You must crush that lie and if your lawyers can't accomplish it for you, then you must try other ways."

"Who told you all this? I expect to see Madame Malden on my return home and find out the exact truth about this matter."

"That's more like it! All I ask of you is ordinary precaution, and from those men the same."

"Do you know Madame Malden?"

"I have met her, but it was some time ago. She was sane then—I think she is sane now, except on the one subject of her son. It is not unheard of for an old woman like that to idly imagine an only child and to read into the simplest conditions an intention to injure or kill him. She holds that as you were alone with him when he died, you were necessarily the cause of his death. Mrs. Malden, you can't altogether deny that appearance of evil."

"Don't you suppose I know it?"

"Don't you suppose that what's driving me mad? I know it better—far better than anyone else. Nor do I blame the old lady for believing it, if we grant she is a little demented.

But same, she couldn't act like that."

"Now, that's the real point. Can you honestly subscribe to that? For there are sane people ready to believe that your exclusive opportunity,

as it is called, brings about suspicion of you. Remember, the people in Richmond do not know you as we do, do not love you as we do—they only know that Corey married you—and Corey died."

Perilla raised a piteous face to look into Field's eyes, and she said,

"Can't you help feeling," she said,

"that I have enough to bear in the loss of my husband, without the terror of this monstrous accusation. But since it is in the air, it must be re-ckoned with. I thank you for telling me frankly, as you have done, the danger I am in, and I hope it may be averted. But I am sure that cannot be so long as Madame Malden is free to pursue her wicked ways. She has, too, an able assistant in that lawyer of hers, Mr. Carmichael, who is ready to swear black is white if she says

so."

Melvin Harder Pitches and Bats Indians Into First Place

JOHNSON, PICARD IN PRO-AMATEUR VICTORY WITH 68

Ball, Johnston Has 72; P. G. A. Play Starts Today.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 11.—(P) Lewis Johnson, 17-year-old Charleston (S. C.) high school senior, cracked out a par-shattering 33 on the incoming nine and boosted Henry Picard, the Charleston pro, into first money in 18-hole pro-amateur preliminary today to the Southeastern P. G. A. golf tournament.

Picard had carried the load on the out nine with a 35, two strokes under par, and together he and Johnson worked a best-ball score of 68, which was better by a stroke than any of the rest of the 20 teams competing could muster.

Ernie Ball, Atlanta, and T. W. Johnston, Atlanta, 37-35-72.

Miss Maddox Knows Links, Has Edge

Familiarity with the layout of the tournament course at Radium Springs, Ga., will give Miss Margaret Maddox, of Atlanta, an advantage over her competitors in the southern women's golf championship in June.

She has played the course, near Albany, many times and has scored some of her victories there. She won an invitation tournament by defeating Miss Bea Gottlieb, of New York, a one-handicap player, in the metropolitan district and America's only entrant in the British title meet this year.

Miss Maddox has been a frequent contender for the southern crown which she won in 1929 at New Orleans. She now is Georgia champion. Business duties have forced her to shorten her practice hours but she is spending as much time as possible now on the East Lake links.

She shoots in the low 80's consistently. She is tall, courageous and strong. George Sargent, the East Lake professional, says she would be a top-notch player if she had more time to give to the game.

YANKEES DROP HALF GAME BACK AS TRIBE WINS

Young Star Hero of 4-1 Victory Over Boston as Yanks Rest.

CLEVELAND, May 11.—(P) Young Mel Harder pitched and batted the Indians into an exclusive claim on first place in the American league today as Cleveland defeated Boston, 4 to 1.

The victory gave the Indians a half game lead over the Yankees, who were routed out at Chicago. It was the second time this season that the tribe pushed New York out of the top of the league standings. On the previous occasion—last Sunday—the Yanks climbed right back again by defeating the Indians in the second game of a double-header, after losing the first.

Capping an excellent six-hit pitching performance, Harder drove out a home run and also scored on a two-base hit.

In the fifth, Harder looked at a couple of balls and then smashed a home run into the left field stands. The Indians settled matters thoroughly in the next inning when they fell on Ivy Andrews for two runs. Burnett's single, Averill's triple and Morgan's fly did the business.

Rick Ferrell, the Red Sox's new catcher obtained from St. Louis, played his first game in a Boston uniform and contributed two hits. His first one, followed by singles by Alexander and Warfield, started the visitors' lone run-making inning.

Joe Vosmik, Cleveland outfielder, got a single after 18 successive hitless trips to the plate.

Johnny Vergez Back in Big Six

By the Associated Press.
The Big Six was reduced to normal size yesterday as Johnny Vergez, of the New York Giants, found his batting eye again and rapped out three hits in five times at bat against the Pirates to climb back into the sextet. Vergez gained third place in the National league, ousting both Chuck Klein and Pie Traynor, who had been tied for the post. Johnny Frederick, with two hits in four times up, increased his average by nine points and climbed to within five of Gabby Hartnett, the idle National league leader. All the American league members were kept inactive by the weather and none of their rivals could overtake them. The standing:

Sande To Ride At Arlington Park

CHICAGO, Ill., May 10.—(UP)—Earle Sande, formerly America's premier jockey with many important victories to his credit, including the Arlington classic with Gallant Fox, plans to bring the eight horses he is training for Colonel Maxwell Howard, of Dayton, Ohio, to Arlington park for the 30-day meeting starting June 26. It was learned today.

Sande, feeling that he still has the knack of "booting those winners home," intends to ride any of his employer's horses upon which he can make the weight. Among the prominent members of the stable are Resurrection, St. Stephens, St. Hubert and Orpheus.

RAILBIRDS GIVE DOZEN HORSES CHANCE TO WIN

Broker's Tip and Head Play To Have Battle in Preakness.

BALTIMORE, May 11.—(P)—Around Old Hilltop, where the Pimlico race track is located, there is a feeling among some turfmen that the Preakness Saturday will not be just another duel for Colonel E. R. Bradley's Broker's Tip and Mrs. Silas Mason's Head Play.

This feeling is current despite the runaway Broker's Tip and Head Play made of the Kentucky Derby when R. M. Eastman's Charley O trailed in third place by five lengths and W. R. Coe's Ladyman, the eastern favorite, was a good seven lengths behind the leaders.

Although he lost to Broker's Tip by a nose in the Derby, Head Play has established himself as the favorite. Nevertheless, the railbirds for the most part believe any of the dozen probable entries has a chance.

In addition to Ladyman, others expected to give battle in the $25,000 added Maryland classic are W. R. Coe's Pomponius, the Catwaba farm's Mr. Khayyam, Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Dark Winter, Lee Rosenberg's Utopian and H. C. Phipps's De Valera. De Valera, on the strength of a workout he had at Aqueduct before coming to Maryland this week, was among the more talked of horses.

JACKET NETMEN BEAT SOUTHERN HERE BY 5 TO 1

Georgia Tech's netmen, minus Billy Reese, slaughtered Birmingham-Southern, 5-1, Thursday afternoon in a match at the Tech courts. Lewis Busenelner won the only point for the visiting netmen.

Three of the matches went three sets. Randolph West, Tech, required three sets to down Armin Aufdehary, Birmingham-Southern, 6-4, 3-6, 6-1. Henry Howell, Birmingham-Southern, lost to Henry Dozier, Tech, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3. Billy Bearfield lost Tech's only match to Lewis Busenelner, Birmingham-Southern, 6-2, 2-6, 6-4.

In the only doubles match completed, West and Jackson, Tech, defeated Downs and Vernon, Birmingham-Southern, 6-1, 6-4. Darkness halted the last match between Keiser and Crawford, Tech, and Howell and Aufdehary, Birmingham-Southern, after the Tech pair had won the first set, 6-4.

NEW YORK, May 11.—(AP)—Seething financial markets held their chosen course today, entering the fourth week of reviving optimism with an inclusive report that attained outstanding buoyancy on the grain exchange.

A government estimate placing the winter wheat crop at the highest figure in 29 years, and reporting a very substantial decrease of acreage, was sufficient to set the Chicago pit astir and quotations on wheat and other grains surged to new highs.

Stocks charged ahead for many gains of 1 to 5 points and finished near the best profit-taking clipped the advance at times. Enthusiasm ran so high that it was almost as if the rally were a new experience rather than a recovery from a slump.

Bonds shot upward and cotton closed with gains of $1.50 to $1.70 a bale.

Large Turnover.

Sales of stocks totaled 6,177,250 shares, the second largest turnover of the year. Interest shifted from its place to issue and group to group, and scores of shares registered new highs.

The industrial and railroad divisions, as measured by Standard Statistics' Associated Press composites, went to new 1933 tops and the 90-stock average rose 2 points to 72, compared with 1932's high of 73.9.

Several individual shares distinguished themselves. United States Steel by pouring out a dividend of $1.00 a share, and the American Telephone and Telegraph by a 5% increase.

United Alkali, Industrial Union, National Distillers, Wilson & Co., Liggett & Myers "B," American Telephone, and American International Telephone rose 1 to 4. General Motors, ex-dividend, rallied 1 point on huge volume.

News Alerts Markets.

The short wheat crop, expectations that cotton would advance to profit by broader demand from industry, as well as prospects of credit expansion and a large government construction program and hopes of smoother international seas were mentioned among the factors contributing to the untiring energies of advancing markets.

In addition, however, there is the unmistakable business recovery and the improved state of mind which it both reflects and fosters.

The Federal reserve system has taken on no steps toward anticipating credit extension under the Thomas amendment. Holdings of United States government bonds in the week ended Wednesday showed only minor changes. Bill purchases were down about $20,000,000. Discounts dropped $22,000,000.

Meanwhile, total circulation of currency continues to shrink, having fallen $62,000,000 during the second full week of May. Gold reserves of the central banks increased $7,000,000, a small gain that has been reported weekly since the bank holiday.

There was some talk of a possible federal reserve bank notes, which are now outstanding to the amount of $62,800,000.

TARZAN THE APE MAN No. 41

"We might as well make camp in here," said Holt. "I'll go down stream a little way... see if I can pick up that trail. Boy!" he called, beckoning a black youth to go with him. "Don't get lost or anything, John," cautioned the girl.

"I'll try not to," answered Holt, smiling. Followed by the black boy he made his way toward the river, turning to wave back at Jean. "Come on, Riano. A little farther inland," said Parker, leading the way. Finding a suitable camp site, they halted, when Riano whispered, suddenly: "Buana! Topi!"

A huge bull appeared running through the woodland, opposite. Parker, seeing the animal, carefully raised his gun, aimed, and was about to fire when the animal dropped dead. The whole party stared in astonishment. As Parker took a step toward the dead animal there was a rustling in the bushes.

Several pin heads appeared. One of them ran and drew his spear out of the dead bull. Jean, trembling, put her hand on her father's arm. Parker said to Riano: "Tell them we're friendly. Ask them if they know of the Elephant's Graveyard."

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

A huge bull appeared running through the woodland, opposite. Parker, seeing the animal, carefully raised his gun, aimed, and was about to fire when the animal dropped dead. The whole party stared in astonishment. As Parker took a step toward the dead animal there was a rustling in the bushes.

Several pin heads appeared. One of them ran and drew his spear out of the dead bull. Jean, trembling, put her hand on her father's arm. Parker said to Riano: "Tell them we're friendly. Ask them if they know of the Elephant's Graveyard."

MORTGAGE LOANS WILL BE SPEEDED

Morgenthau To Make Big Fund Available Within Record Time.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(AP)—Henry Morgenthau Jr., farm board chairman, today put machinery into operation to make mortgage relief and refinancing available to farmers as soon as possible after the farm relief bill is signed tomorrow.

He completed arrangements to have the first of a $200,000,000 fund of Reconstruction Corporation funds available within an hour after President Roosevelt signs the measure.

This fund is to be used to assist farmers facing loss of their homes through foreclosure, including those who still have a chance to redeem their property. The first of these loans will be made Monday, he said.

Morgenthau said refinancing of farm mortgages, for which $200,000,000 will be provided through sale of federal land bank bonds, will be started "within two weeks."

He called a meeting for next Monday of representatives of the leading 25 insurance companies holding farm mortgages. He will discuss with them plans for refinancing a part of their farm mortgage holdings in return for bonds.

Paul Bestor, farm loan commissioner of the land bank system, who will continue to direct this work under the new central credit organization after May 27, met with a group of agents who will assist him in making direct loans to farmers from the $200,000,000 fund.

C. W. Carson, of Amarillo, Texas, was appointed Bestor's assistant. The money will be lent through the offices of the 12 land banks. The security required will be first or second mortgages upon real and personal property. Individual farmers will be able to borrow up to $5,000 at an interest rate of not more than 5 per cent.

Agents for all except the Omaha, Louisville and St. Paul banks have been selected. The men, their home addresses and the locations of the land banks at which they will receive applications, include Henry J. Johnson, of Columbia, S. C., at Columbia; William L. Pryor, of Laurel, Miss., at New Orleans; Ernest J. Bodman, of Little Rock, at St. Louis.

PUBLIC WORKS BILL READY FOR CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(AP)—President Roosevelt will have ready to lay before his cabinet tomorrow a completed draft of proposed legislation for battling unemployment, including a $3,300,000,000 public works program and permission for industry to co-operate outside the anti-trust laws to improve conditions.

Chairman Doughton, of the house ways and means committee, who will be in charge of the measure in the house, said, however, it would not be introduced before next week.

The broad legislation which the chief executive approved in principle at a White House conference yesterday was virtually completed tonight by the president's special committee.

Final agreement had been reached on the $3,300,000,000 construction program, including federal, state and municipal projects.

"There will be some tax levy in the bill, enough to pay interest and sinking fund requirements," Doughton said. "It has not yet been decided what taxes will be imposed. Between $250,000,000 and $350,000,000 is to be allotted for highway construction."

The plan is, it was said, to provide for amortization of the bonds over a period of 15 to 20 years.

Discussion at the capital of the tax question centered around a sales tax described as a "re-employment tax" or a "breakfast tax" on coffee and tea.

Talk of new taxes drew immediate opposition, though, from some democratic leaders, including Chairman Harrison, of the senate finance committee, which would consider it.

"I don't think this congress would accept a general sales tax," he said. "I would rather cut down construction than impose new taxes."

Hospitals To Receive Visitors During Observance Here Today

An invitation to all Atlantans to visit one or more of the several hospitals in the city today was extended Thursday in a joint statement issued by Superintendent W. D. Barker, of Georgia Baptist, and Superintendent J. B. Franklin, of Grady. The former is state chairman of national hospital day and member of the public relations committee for Georgia.

Today, the statement is explained, is national hospital day and in Atlanta and the rest of the country the people are asked to take advantage of the privilege and opportunity of visiting them in the hope of a better understanding and closer contact with the institutions that serve them in time of need.

There will be no solicitation of funds at any of the hospitals today, the statement explained.

"We want," the superintendents said, "you to know your hospital. If you know your hospital and know its worth and the type of service it renders to the community in its effort to mitigate suffering and to restore threatening health, your support is already won."

Georgia Baptist, Superintendent Barker said, will hold open house from 2 until 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Many hoarders have ignored the government's demand that they surrender all gold currency exceeding $100 or face a fine and a jail term, the weekly condition statement of the federal reserve banks showed tonight.

Approximately $700,000,000 in gold still remains outside the government's control and the flow from hoarders has dwindled to a mere trickle, it was revealed.

The government thus far has taken no action against gold hoarders. Attorney-General Cummings said he was waiting for evidence of violations now being compiled by the treasury department before he acted.

A total of $6,564,000 in gold was returned to the reserve banks in the week ended May 10. This brought total gold reserves of the system to a total of $3,422,134,000 and the total under control of the government and the banks to $3,619,134,000.

With total monetary gold stocks in the country of $3,613,000,000, this left a total of $693,836,000 either in circulation or in the hands of gold hoarders.

CAROLINA SENATE CUTS STATE APPROPRIATIONS

Passage Places Legislature Within Step of Adjournment This Week.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 11.—(AP)—The South Carolina senate today approved the lowest appropriation in 11 years placing the legislature within a step of adjournment since die this week.

Only the retrenchment and revenue bill, now being redrafted, by a free conference committee, stood between the lawmakers and conclusion of a record-breaking session which already has run 122 days.

The senate adopted the free conference report on appropriations by a 27 to 10 vote without changing a penny of its total. It was sent on its way to ratification and the governor, having passed the house last Friday, 51 to 43.

Carrying $8,025,000 for 18 months, or less than $6,000,000 a year it would operate the state government and schools upon the smallest sum since 1922. The total then was $3,850,000.

It abolished the natural resources commission, food, research laboratory and industrial school for girls in addition to the warehouse commission and bank examiner's office eliminated by previous acts and dropped three officials of the state health department.

The newest thermometers for recording winter temperatures at Wyoming ranger stations can register cold as intense as 75 degrees below zero.

Farm hands are receiving the lowest wages since the 20th century began.
